HALLOWEEN NIGHT

Buses glimmer, shadows shimmer,
Under a silvery moon.
Goblins and witches are out tonight,
Howling a Halloween tune.

ON HALLOWEEN

On Halloween I’ll wear a sheet,
To cover me from head to feet.
And, then I’ll go outside to scare,
Some people with my ghostly stare.

HALLOWEEN

Pumpkins with their eyes alight.
Witches on their brooms in flight.
Bats and owls up in the air.
Ghosts and goblins everywhere!

NAME

Who Do You See On Halloween?
I see a goblin, a ghost, and a bat.
I see a witch on a broom with a cat.
I see a pumpkin, a graveyard, and owl.
I see a werewolf out on the prowl.

SKELETONS

Skeletons clatter all around.
Rattling their Halloween sound.
Bony bodies and bony heads,
Rise each year from graveyard beds.

A WITCH

A witch has a tall and pointed hat,
And stringy, long black hair.
She chants in a language no one knows,
As she stirs her cauldron with care.

A GOBLIN

A goblin lives in a haunted house,
Where he bumps and thumps and rocks.

A goblin lives in a haunted house,
Where he rattles all the locks.

FIVE LITTLE WITCHES. Directions. Print out. Read the poem. Illustrate the poem.

NAME ______________________________________________________

FIVE LITTLE WITCHES

Five little witches were sitting on the gate,
The 1st one said, "It's getting late."
The 2nd one said, "My candle is lit."
The 3rd one said, "It's hard to sit."
The 4th one said, "My candle went out."
The 5th one said, "Let's give a shout."
Then, "whoosh" went the wind, and out went the light,
And the five little witches flew out of sight.
1, 2, 3, 4, 5.
