

PIGS/Make a Pig Collage.

PIGS/Make a Pig Collage.

Clip Art.

COLOR, CUT & PASTE

©MotherGooseCaboose.com

PIGS/Make a Pig Collage. Print. Cut out. Paste on card stock or cardboard.
Make a collage within the pig face. Make eyes, snout, and finish the mouth. Use ripped newspaper, colored construction paper, tissue paper, yarn, etc. p.3.

COLOR, CUT & PASTE

©MotherGooseCaboose.com

PIGS/Make a Pig Collage. Print. Cut out. Paste on card stock or cardboard. Make a collage within the pig. Make eyes, snout, and mouth. Use ripped newspaper, colored construction paper, tissue paper, yarn, etc. p.4.

Clip Art

COLOR, CUT & PASTE

©MotherGooseCaboose.com

PIGS/Make a Pig Collage. Print. Cut out. Paste on card stock or cardboard. Make a collage within the pig. Make eyes, snout, and mouth. Use ripped newspaper, colored construction paper, tissue paper, yarn, etc. p.5.

Clip Art

PIGS/Make a Pig Collage. Print. Cut out. Paste on card stock or cardboard.
Make a collage within the pig. Make eyes, snout, and mouth. Use ripped newspaper, colored construction paper, tissue paper, yarn, etc. p.6.
Clip Art.

COLOR, CUT & PASTE

Collage Examples. Collage can represent anything from something concrete to something abstract. Colored construction paper, ripped newspaper, tissue paper, and photographs are often used in collages. Yarn, small pieces of wood, tile, fabric, etc. are also used. p.7.

mixed media

mixed media

ARTIN ENGLISH

Clip Art.